

Graduate Education Week

OCTOBER 12-16, 2020 — CAREER PATHWAYS

REGISTRATION is preferred! Please visit: gradschoolgateway.missouri.edu

Monday, October 12

12:00 - 1:00pm
Exploring Diverse Career Pathways

(Part I of series)

Strategies for current graduate students looking to expand their job search and market themselves in unique ways.

Tuesday, October 13

10:00 - 11:00am
Flexible Career Paths that are Viable & Promising: Success Stories (Part II of series)

Panelists will share steps they took to find their career entry point after earning a masters and/or doctorate.

2:00 - 3:00PM
Drop in with the Deans

An opportunity to talk with Graduate School leadership about their experiences, ask questions, & share ideas that may enhance and improve their time at Mizzou.

Wednesday, October 14

10:00 - 11:00am
Preparing for & Landing Positions beyond the Professoriate in Higher Ed: Success Stories

(Part III of series)

Panelists will share steps they took to find their career entry point after earning a masters and/or doctorate.

Thursday, October 15

12:00 - 1:00pm
The Postdoc Life

Current postdocs will share their experiences with applying, finding a mentor, funding, and preparing for the job market for the job market.

4:30 - 5:30pm
Virtual Networking & Online Presence Workshop

co-sponsored by Engineering Career Services & MU Career Center

Learn how to enhance your Handshake and LinkedIn profiles as well as virtual networking skills. Register on Handshake.

All Day
CV Docs sponsored by GPC

Friday, October 16

12:00 - 3:00pm
The Job Search...where to begin? Assemble your Materials!

Guidance and time for students to work on the essential items of a professional portfolio - CV, resume, cover letter, teaching philosophy, research statement, diversity statement, and LinkedIn profile.

All Day
CV Docs sponsored by GPC

Questions may be directed to Dr. Laura Page at PageL@missouri.edu